A LACQUERED JINGASA (WAR HAT)

Japan, 19th century, Edo period (1615-1868)

The black lacquer shingen style jingasa with a copper brim and tehen no kanamono, the front with a mon crest in gold hiramaki-e, the red-lacquered interior with the original straps and interior padding and applied eyelets. With associated silk padding.

LENGTH 33.5 cm, WIDTH 30 cm

Condition: Good condition with minor wear, occasional light scratches, an application to the back of the jingasa is lost.

Provenance: Viennese private collection, acquired in the local trade before 2000.

The origins of this style of jingasa are said to trace back to Takeda Shingen (1521-1573), who it is believed favored this shape.
